Tweed All abilities Events 2024

8 Nov - 18 Dec

Program guide

These events are proudly hosted on Bundjalung Country and by local organisations and community members across Tweed to promote inclusion for all.

Curated and promoted by the Tweed IDPwD Working Group, comprising members of the Tweed Disability Network, and supported by Tweed Shire Council.

We are committed to accessibility; event details may change. Please contact organisers directly to confirm information and discuss any access needs.

Access full event details and booking links via Council's webpage – International Day of People with Disability in the Tweed: tweed.nsw.gov.au/idpwd

Acknowledgement of Country

Tweed Shire Council wishes to acknowledge the Ngandowal and Minyungbal speaking people of the Bundjalung Country, in particular the Goodjinburra, Tul-gi-gin and Moorung – Moobah clans, as being the traditional owners and custodians of the land and waters within the Tweed Shire boundaries. Council also acknowledges and respects the Tweed Aboriginal community's right to speak for its Country and to care for its traditional Country in accordance with its lore, customs and traditions.

Rail Trail Accessibility:

- Accessibility Goal: We aim to make the Rail Trail welcoming for everyone. We encourage those with disabilities to review our "Access for All" webpage, plan their visit, and consider bringing a companion for their first trip.

Getting There:

- Location: Cycling Without Age service starts at Masterson Park, Burringbar, near Burringbar Memorial Reserve.
- Directions: Burringbar Station is 18 km from Murwillumbah Railway Station, via Tweed Valley Way.
- Parking: Ample public parking with two accessible bays near the Rail Trail at Burringbar Memorial Reserve.

Trail Access & Mobility:

- Trail Surface: Sealed asphalt covers the 2.15 km section between Burringbar and Mooball, and from Murwillumbah Station to Tweed Regional Gallery. Other sections are solid and suitable for mobility scooters.
- Estimated Travel Times: Walking from Burringbar to Mooball takes about 26 minutes; cycling takes around 10 minutes. Allow extra time for breaks if travelling independently.
- Markers: Location markers every kilometre show unique codes (e.g., "NRRT###"), indicating distance from Murwillumbah Station.

Facilities & Amenities:

- Pathways: Concrete paths connect the trail to public toilets at Burringbar and Mooball.
- Assistance Animals: Assistance animals are welcome, but all dogs must be on a short lead. Owners are responsible for cleaning up.
- Rest Stops: Shaded seating and water stations are available at Burringbar and Mooball.
- Accessible Toilets: Toilets are available at Burringbar Memorial Reserve, Masterson Park, and Mooball. These older facilities may not meet current accessibility standards, and we are working on improvements as funding allows.
